LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE.

TITLE FIRST.

Of the Jurisdiction and Property of the State; its Legislation and Laws.

CHAPTER 1.

DIVISION, LINE BETWEEN DELAWARE AND PENNSYLVANIA.

AN ACT to repeal an act entitled, "An act to Settle and Determine the Dividing Line between this State and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Delaware in General Assembly met, That the act entitled, "An act to settle and determine the dividing line between this State and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania," passed at Dover, April 1, 1869, be and the same is hereby repealed, made null and void.

Passed at Dover, March 8, 1871.

CHAPTER 2.

ELECTION DISTRICTS.

AN ACT to divide St. George's Hundred into two Election Districts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Delaware in General Assembly met,

SECTION 1. That for the purpose of holding elections for State and County officers in St. George's Hundred, the said hundred shall be divided into two election districts, by the following line, to wit: Beginning at the mouth of a small branch emptying into districts.

CONCERNING LIMITS.

Appoquinimink Creek, between lands of William A. Cochran and lands of Alexander M. Vail; thence by a straight line through lands of William A. Cochran and lands of Richard W. Cochran to the mouth of the road leading from the Middletown and Odessa road to the "Brick Mill," thence with said road and crossing the dam belonging to said mill to the road leading from Odessa to Armstrong's Corner; thence with the last named roads to the Delaware Railroad, and thence with the said railroad to the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal. All that part of the said hundred lying north and east of the said division line shall be St. George's East Election District, and all that part of said hundred lying south and west of said division line shall be St. George's West Election District. The elections for the said Eastern District shall be held in the village of Odessa, at the hotel now occupied by William T. Chance, and the elections for the said Western District shall be held in Middletown, at the hotel now occupied by George W. Ortlip.

SECTION 2. At the said places shall be held the general election, all special elections for members of the General Assembly, and Representatives in Congress, elections for Electors of President and Vice President of the United States, and elections for Road Commissioners, for Assessor of the said hundred, and for Inspector of the said election districts. The electors residing in the said hundred shall vote in the election district in which they shall at the time reside.

SECTION 3. All the laws of this State touching elections held in the several hundreds of the State shall apply to elections for the same officers of the said election districts, excepting only so far as the general law for the election of assessor and inspector and road commissioners is qualified by the provisions hereinafter contained.

SECTION 4. There shall be elected, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 of the Revised Statutes, one assessor for St. George's Hundred, and one inspector for each of the said districts. In such election the collector of said hundred shall be the presiding officer of St. George's East Election District; and some qualified voter of the district, to be appointed by the Levy Court of New Castle county in the month of March next previous to the election, shall be the presiding officer of St. George's West Election District, and shall have all the duties of the presiding officer of such election, according to law; and if, at any election as aforesaid in St. George's West Election District, a presiding officer shall not have been appointed, or shall not be present at the time and place of opening the election, the electors present shall choose a presiding officer for said election, according to the provisions of Section 10 of Chapter 18 of the Revised Statutes. The Levy Court of New Castle county shall, at the time of the appointment, make provision for the furnishing by the collector of a list of the voters of the said hundred to the person appointed as presiding officer as aforesaid.

Section 5. Immediately upon closing the election for assessor and inspector in the said election districts, and ascertaining the state of the vote, the presiding officer and judges of election in each of the said districts shall make and sign certificates according to law, of the election of inspectors, varying from the form prescribed for that purpose by omitting the assessor and in lieu of including the election of assessor in such certificate, they shall make and sign a certificate of the number of votes given for each candidate voted for as assessor, and also of the number of votes given for each candidate voted for as road commissioner.

Section 6. The said presiding officers and judges of both the said election districts, shall assemble on the day next succeeding said election at 12 o'clock, M., at the place of voting in St. George's East Election District aforesaid, and ascertain the aggregate number of votes given in both the said districts for each person voted for for road commissioner and for assessor. The candidate having the highest number of votes shall be declared duly elected assessor, and the candidate or candidates, according as there may be one or more to be elected, having the highest number of votes for road commissioner or commissioners, shall be declared duly elected road commissioner or road commissioners, and the presiding officers and judges shall make, sign and deliver certificates of said election, according to law. If two candidates for either of the said offices shall have the Tie vote, highest and an equal number of votes, the collector or presiding officer of St. George's East Election District shall give a casting vote which shall elect the candidate in whose favor it is given.

Passed at Dover, March 9, 1871.

CHAPTER 3.

ELECTION DISTRICTS.

AN ACT to divide Appoquinimink Hundred into two Election Districts.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Delaware in General Assembly met, That for the purpose of holding elections for State and county officers in Appoquinimink Hundred, the said hundred shall be and hereby is divided into two election districts, by the following line, to wit: Beginning at the mouth of Blackbird Creek and running with said creek and main branch to a bridge in the road leading from the head of Sassafras to Smyrna, thence westerly in the centre of said road to the cross-roads known as Dexter’s Corner, thence southwesterly with the road leading by Garman’s school house, Cypress Bridge, the late John McKay’s and Daniel Tippet’s to the Maryland line. All that part of said hundred lying north of said dividing line shall be Appoquinimink North Election District; and all that part of said hundred lying south of said dividing line shall be Appoquinimink South Election District. The elections for the said Northern District shall be held in the village of Townsend, at the house now occupied by Captain James Wilson; and the elections for the said Southern District shall be held at Blackbird, at the place now authorized by law for holding elections in said Appoquinimink Hundred.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted as aforesaid, That at the said places shall be held the general election, all special elections for members of the General Assembly and Representatives in Congress; elections for electors of President and Vice President of the United States; and elections for road commissioners, for assessor of the said hundred, and for inspectors of the said election districts. The electors residing in the hundred shall vote in the election district in which they shall reside at the time of the election.

SECTION 3. And be it further enacted as aforesaid, That all the laws of this State touching elections held in the several hundreds of the State shall apply to elections for the same officers of the said election districts, excepting only so far as the general law for the election of assessor and inspector and road commissioners is qualified by the provisions hereinafter contained.

SECTION 4. And be it further enacted as aforesaid, That there shall be elected, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 of the Revised Statutes, one assessor for Appoquinimink Hundred and one inspector for each of the said districts. In such election the collector of said hundred shall be the presiding officer of CONCERNING LIMITS.

Appoquinimink North Election District, and some qualified voter of the district, to be appointed by the Levy Court of New Castle county, in the month of March next previous to the election, shall be the presiding officer of Appoquinimink South Election District, and shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of the presiding officer of such election according to law, and if at any election as aforesaid in Appoquinimink South Election District a presiding officer shall not have been appointed, or shall not be present at the time and place of opening the election, the electors present shall choose a presiding officer for said election according to the provisions of Section 10 of Chapter 18 of the Revised Statutes. The Levy Court of New Castle county shall, at the time of the appointment, make provision for the furnishing by the collector of a list of the voters of the said hundred to the person appointed as presiding officer as aforesaid.

Section 5. And be it further enacted as aforesaid, That immediately upon closing the election for assessor and inspector in the said election districts and ascertaining the state of the vote, the presiding officer and judges of election in each of the said districts shall make and sign certificates according to law of the election of inspectors, varying from the form prescribed for that purpose by omitting the assessor, and in lieu of including the election of assessor in such certificate they shall make and sign a certificate of the number of votes given for each candidate voted for as assessor, and also of the number of votes given for each candidate voted for as road commissioner.

Section 6. And be it further enacted, That the said presiding officers and judges of both the said election districts shall assemble on the day next succeeding said election, at 12 o'clock M., at the place of voting in Appoquinimink North Election District aforesaid, and ascertain the aggregate number of votes given in both the said districts for each person voted for as road commissioner and as assessor. The candidate having the highest number of votes shall be declared duly elected assessor, and the candidate or candidates, according as there may be one or more to be elected, having the highest number of votes for road commissioner or commissioners shall be declared duly elected road commissioner or commissioners, and the presiding officers and judges shall make, sign and deliver certificates of said election according to law. If two candidates for either of the said offices shall have the highest and an equal number of votes, the collector or presiding officer of Appoquinimink North Election District shall give a casting vote, which shall elect the candidate in whose favor it is given.
